

SPONSOR A YOGI IN PRISON

The Yogi-Inmate Collaborative offers incarcerated Rhode Islanders access to the rich tradition of yoga (both ancient roots and modern variants) as a means towards greater wellness both within the prison walls and beyond.

The Collaborative currently offers classes in the Price Medium Security Men's Facility as well as the Dix Minimum Security Women's Facility. For more information talk to Rebecca at the studio or go to thecenterofjoy.net.

$45 sponsors a “yogi-inmate”
for a full 12 week course

This is a karma yoga opportunity directly related to your own practice. Updates and reflections will be offered bimonthly to all participating “outside yogis” (you!).

Your donation (of any size) supports this important and transformative work. You can sponsor a yogi-inmate here at the studio (checks payable to “the center of joy”) or online at thecenterofjoy.net.

"The bottom line is, it's up to you in each and every moment-- not in a heavy, self-righteous way, but rather full of life and good humor-- to bring Light to whatever's going on." ~Bo Lozoff, founder of the Prison-Ashram Project
