1. On a separate sheet of paper: Please write a handwritten statement of intention. Why are you taking this training? What is the most important reason for taking this training?

Please spend some time incubating this and be as specific as you can. I like this statement of intention handwritten because pen and ink convey so much feeling and more information than a computer. It is okay if your handwriting isn't perfect. In this training, you absolutely do not have to be perfect.

2. What best summarizes your intention? (pick only one)

- a) I am mostly wanting this training to deepen my yoga practice.
- b) I am wanting to deepen my yoga practice and I might want to teach yoga.
- c) I want to teach yoga part time.
- d) I want to teach yoga full time.

3. Do you wish to only take the 150 hour Vinyasa Teacher Training? Yes / No

4. Do you want to take the Certification program? Why?

5. How is your physical health? Please describe details, add extra pages if necessary. All information given is held in strict confidence.

6. Are you on any medications? Please describe details.

7. Have you had any surgery or medical procedures in the last 7 years? Please describe details.

8. Have you been in psychotherapy? Please describe for how long, for what condition and what insights you may have gained.

9. Please give me some idea of your family background. How would you characterize your relationship with your parents? (If they have passed away, please describe how your relationship was.)

10. Commitment Statement

I, _____, understand this Vinyasa Yoga Teacher Training is intellectually challenging and in order to get the most out of this training it will require many hours of reading, studying and gestating the philosophical insights of the Yogic Tradition as well as many hours of physical asana practice. I am committing my full attention to this work for the next few months.
